

In Cleveland, Ohio, employees in manufacturing earned on an average

53.91

a year in 1890 and 53.69

a year in 1890. In the meantime the number of employees had grown from 51,734

to 48,754

Cleveland's working people ought to be able to stand a great deal of that kind of impoverishment.

—New York Times.

THE JERVEL HYDE ADMINISTRATION.

Washington Post.—The Civil Service reformers adjourned without taking up the strange case of Mr. Maxwell.

SUFFERING.

Washington Intelligencer.—The President gives Turkey to Texas. West Virginia does not get so much as a dramsick.

ACTING AS CLERK.

Minneapolis Journal.—President Cleveland is running the Treasury Department just now and Carlisle is simply performing clerical duties.

THE "POOR MAN'S FRIEND."

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—It is well to hear in mind that the "poor man's party" is preparing to put sugar, tea and coffee back on the dutiable list.

GHOST PROOF.

New York Press.—The report that Mr. Cleveland hurried to Chicago to get away from a scene where the memory of John Brown constantly haunted him is probably unfounded.

AT, NOT CLUB.

Minneapolis Tribune.—It is claimed President Cleveland has harmonized the New York Democracy. Perhaps he has, but if he has he has worn all the bark off his club in the operation.

MODERN JEFFERSONIAN PRACTICE.

Cleveland Leader.—It is only with the advent of modern Democratic "Jeffersonian simplicity" under Mr. Cleveland that it has been found necessary to put the White House servants in a livery after the manner of the effete monarchies of Europe.

LET IT WADE.

New York Press.—The statement that David A. Wells, Springer, Wilson and McMillan are framing the Cleveland Tariff bill indicates that the Administration intends to follow Colonel Watson's prophesy of wading through a slaughter-house to an open grave.

CERTAINLY.

Kansas City Journal.—It is noteworthy that the Democratic leaders and organs who are so worked up about pension reform never have a word to say for revision of the Mexican pension list. Is this because the Mexican veterans are nearly all Democrats and ex-Confederates?

KILL THE COON.

New York Press.—While Secretary Gresham is preoccupied to test reciprocity up by the roots, the British Iron Trade Association is calling the attention of the British Secretary of Foreign Affairs to the fact that American goods have obtained through our treaty with Spain as to that island.

A REMARKABLE SIGHT.

Boston Herald.—Few Nations will permit foreign armed bodies to land on their territory. The sight presented on Broadway, New York, was accordingly remarkable. The serried ranks of the battalions of nine National Guards, with the National flag of each waving over them, marching together, with no feelings save those of the greatest friendliness, presented a spectacle long to be remembered and probably not to be seen in any other country.

AN AMATEUR FINANCIER.

Secretary Carlisle's conference with New York bankers last week did not raise the reputation of the Secretary of the Treasury in the estimation of the leading financiers of that city. "There has been no Secretary of the Treasury within my recollection," a prominent banker said, "who had so little information about financial methods as Mr. Carlisle. He is a very poor amateur and the most distressing feature of the case is that he appears to think that he knows it all. I am a Democrat and I have the greatest confidence in Mr. Carlisle's personal integrity, but I predict now that he will be the most complete failure of Mr. Cleveland's Administration if he is permitted to remain at the head of the Treasury Department. It is humiliating to think that the chief financial officer of the Government knows practically nothing about financial affairs."

THE Covington and Lexington Turnpike Company, whose tolls were out in the two-cent bill, has taken care to put the Bureau Company of the United States.

The funeral of Mrs. Carrie A. Lane, wife of Isaac M. Lane, was largely attended yesterday afternoon.

After religious services at the M. Church by her pastor, the Rev. Dr. H. M. Long, a long line of carriages filled with mourning relatives and friends took up the procession to the cemetery.

Five street cars carried members of Order of the Beloved—two contained Fillet Division, Sons of Temperance, and were followed by members of Friendship Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah.

Of the Fair on Sunday.—There is some talk to the effect that the local directory may open the gates to the fair on Sunday.

CHICAGO, May 4.—The Judiciary committee of the national commission reported that the rules forbidding the opening of the fair on Sunday, and that that should be considered as settling the question.

A large number of the national commissioners favor opening the gates of the fair to the public on Sunday, and, from the general expressions of opinion, it is highly probable that an effort will be made to amend the rules by striking out the Sunday closing clause.

There is some talk to the effect that the local directory may take the matter out of the hands of the national commission, and open the gates regardless of the rule forbidding the opening.

Commissioner C. B. Walt, formerly chief justice of Utah, in expressing an opinion on the question, said: "In my opinion, the directory of the Columbian exposition is neither morally nor legally bound to close the world's fair on Sunday, either by act of congress or by any other consideration. What is more, I seriously doubt their right to close the gates on Sunday or any other day, even if they should feel so disposed."

The directors are saying very little as to the reasons. It is said, however, that tickets are ready for use on Sunday next, and all preparations have been made to open the gates without announcing the fact until it is too late for legal interference.

There appears to be a disposition on the part of some of the restaurant-keepers at the fair to raise suddenly their prices they charge. At one eating-house the price of roast-beef is one dollar, and ten cents extra is charged for the privilege of eating.

Other worst price is sold at twenty-five cents a loaf. The local papers have taken up the cry against this sort of imposition, and it is probable that the management will regulate the matter.

Wednesday large numbers of visitors carried lunch with them, having learned from experience that it was not safe to take the restaurants inside the grounds.

SECRETARY CARLISLE

says There is Plenty of Gold Which Can be Utilized.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Secretary Carlisle was at the Treasury department Wednesday, looking less careworn than when he left here. In answer to an inquiry about the gold situation, he said:

"I made no absolute arrangement whatsoever for the acceptance of any gold by the Treasury. Affairs are in a satisfactory state, and the department is not anxious. There is plenty of gold which can be utilized. It is surmised that the secretary is quite likely to have conferences before long with New York bankers. Gold is slowly dribbling into the Treasury, and as practically none going out these days the result is a gradual strengthening of the reserve. The official statements, however, do not yet show that the gold reserve, so called, is again at the $100,000,000 mark, but some additional offers, which have been accepted, but in which transfers have not yet been completed, leave a slight free gold balance.

Chiefs of Divisions Theophilus Dallas, of West Virginia, in the second auditor's office; Theodore F. Long, of Maryland, in the fourth auditor's office; and Eschel Dawson, of Delaware, in the first officers office, Wednesday, handed in their resignations to Secretary Carlisle. It is understood that more resignations are expected to follow in a short time. The present move is believed to be the beginning of a general one by the secretary looking to the vacation of positions of chiefs of divisions by republican incumbents.

A special meeting of the cabinet was held Wednesday. It is understood the financial situation and the revolutionary movement in Cuba came in for a share of consideration.

No information has been received here that any filibustering expeditions are being out, but an extra precaution extra vigilance will be taken at this time to prevent people in the United States aiding the revolutionists.

The engineer's leg was broken, but besides some bruise and other injuries were received by the passengers. The train carried the legislature returning from the Lexington races, and it is thought some crank might violence to the legislature. The passengers for the most part took a midnight walk to Frankfort.

Parts of the Adams and Johnson plantations are inundated.
